

The Common Room Regulations

Definitions:

Common Room: Room 0.090 in the Metaforum building of the University of Technology Eindhoven.

Room Responsible: A person who has been appointed by the Common Room Committee who has been given the authority to oversee events in the Common Room and keep the Common Room open for its day-to-day functions.

Internal: The Associations AEGEE-Eindhoven and Cosmos as well as any Organisation approved by the Common Room Committee as Internal.

External: Any Individual or organisation not defined as Internal.

Back Room: The smaller area that is separated from the rest of the Common Room by the internal walls inside the Common Room.

Board Representative: A member of the board of AEGEE-Eindhoven or Cosmos appointed to be a member of the Common Room Committee.

Exclusive event: An event during which only the people attending the event are allowed to be in the Common Room.

Article 1: Common Room

1. The goal of the Common Room is to promote integration of the TU/e community with a strong focus on cultures and international students, as well as providing a welcoming space for all.
2. The Common Room is managed by the associations AEGEE-Eindhoven and Cosmos.
3. AEGEE-Eindhoven and Cosmos both have equal rights and influence in all matters and affairs concerning the Common Room. This means that when voting on any decision both associations have exactly 50% of the vote. The votes are carried out by the representatives of AEGEE-Eindhoven and Cosmos.
 - a. Any future mention of a vote is based on this procedure.
4. The Common Room Committee, the board of AEGEE-Eindhoven, and the board of Cosmos reserve the right to deny or revoke anyone's access to the Common Room until the next meeting of the Common Room Committee if the person violates the Common Room Regulations, TU/e Regulations, Dutch Law and/or the Statutes of either AEGEE-Eindhoven or Cosmos.
 - a. The Common Room Committee, the board of AEGEE-Eindhoven, and the board of Cosmos can together decide during a Common Room Committee meeting the duration of the denial of access to the Common Room.
5. The Common Room Committee reserves the right to report anyone breaking the Common Room Regulations to the board of the organisation that person is a part of.
 - a. The Common Room Committee keeps track of reports that are made.
6. As long as the Common Room is open there must always be a Room Responsible present in the Common Room.
7. The Back Room can only be used for activities that serve a function for AEGEE-Eindhoven and Cosmos.
 - a. If the Back Room is not needed for such an activity, members of AEGEE-Eindhoven and Cosmos are allowed to use the Back Room for the purpose of studying.
8. The board of AEGEE-Eindhoven, the board of Cosmos and the Common Room Committee can always enter the Common Room for urgent matters concerning their responsibilities.
9. All materials within the Common Room that are not specified to be private property of a person, an organisation, AEGEE-Eindhoven or Cosmos are property of the Common Room Committee.

Article 4: Bookings

1. The Common Room can be booked by any organisation or individual for an event which meets the following criteria:
 - a. The event cannot be an Exclusive event.
 - b. The official first language of the event is required to be English.
 - c. The event that matches the goal of the Common Room as described in Article 1.1.
 - d. The person that reserves the Common Room must be a TU/e student or employee.
2. There may be costs involved with booking the Common Room for events. Booking fees will be made publicly available by the Common Room Committee.
 - a. Internal parties can book the Common Room at no cost.
3. A Room Responsible will be assigned to all events. The exact duties are defined in Appendix D
 - a. Any event with more than 30 people present will be assigned two Room Responsibles.
4. During an event, the Room Responsible reserves the right to deny or revoke anyone access to the Common Room for the duration of the event, if the person violates the Common Room Regulations, TU/e Regulations, Dutch Law and/or the Statutes of either AEGEE-Eindhoven or Cosmos.
 - a. The board of AEGEE-Eindhoven and the board of Cosmos, and the Common Room Committee reserve the right to overrule such a decision.
5. By booking the Common Room, the person who booked the room agrees that all organising parties have read the Common Room Regulations and agree to abide by these rules. The organising parties will be held responsible for any cost or consequences that arise from breaking the rules.
6. Booking the Common Room is only possible 7 or more days in advance.
 - a. The booking requirements and procedure is described in Appendix A.
7. If a reservation is made but no person arrives up to half an hour after the starting time of the event, the Room Responsible has the right to cancel the event after contacting the person who booked the room and confirming that the event is cancelled or after another half an hour without response from the organiser.
8. The Common Room can only be booked until 15 minutes before the closing of MetaForum.
9. If there is no Room Responsible available for the time of a certain booking request, then that booking request must be rejected unless a Room Responsible becomes available.
10. In case the Common Room or any of its materials are damaged during an event, the organisation who booked the Common Room will pay for the damages. See damage form in Appendix B.
 - a. If any damages occur in a timeframe of 2 hours after the event, caused by those present during an event, the damages are also to be paid by the organising party of the event.
11. The Common Room must be cleaned after an event by the organisers during their booked time according to Appendix C. If this is not the case, a €50 fine will be charged to the booking party of the Common Room.
12. Attendees of external events have access to the full kitchen and kitchen utensils, except the cabinets marked public food, disposables, and members only, or anything that is clearly labelled as private property.
13. The booking fee invoice from the Common Room Committee must be paid at least 72 hours prior to the start time of the booking.
 - a. If the booking party cancels their booking after the aforementioned time period, the booking fee will not be refunded.
 - b. If the booking fee is not paid 72 hours before the start time of the booking, the booking will be cancelled.
14. The Common Room Committee can cancel events at any time because of exceptional circumstances. In this case the booking fee will be refunded within 10 business days.

Article 5: Promotional Materials

1. Promotional material can only be placed in designated areas. The information of the location of these areas is publicly available.
2. The Common Room Committee reserves the right to remove any promotional materials placed in the Common Room that are deemed inappropriate, irrelevant or violate TU/e guidelines.
3. Expired promotional material may be removed by anyone.
4. Stickers are not allowed to be attached to anything that isn't the personal property of the person attaching the sticker. The board of AEGEE-Eindhoven and the board of Cosmos can place stickers on property that is owned by their respective associations.

Article 6: Housekeeping

1. Everyone is responsible for their own garbage. Trash should either be thrown away in the correct garbage bin or be taken with them when leaving the Common Room.
2. Any kitchenware used by a person must be either cleaned and put back in its place or put inside the dishwasher.
3. If people decide to cook using the stove, they must adjust the ventilation to the maximum setting and make sure the smoke alarm is not triggered. If they do trigger the smoke alarm, they are responsible for any consequences and costs that arise from this.
4. Members of AEGEE-Eindhoven and Cosmos can temporarily store food and drink for their exclusive use in the Common Room by clearly writing their name and date on it and storing it in the top two shelves of the cupboard labelled "Public Food", the fridges in the kitchen, or in the freezer. The Common Room Committee reserves the right to throw away any food that is past their expiration date.
5. Food and drinks that are stored for exclusive use in the fridges as per Article 6.4 can only be stored for 7 days. After 7 days have passed the Common Room Committee reserves the right to throw away this food.
6. Anyone can put food or drink they want to leave for public consumption either in the bottom shelf of the cupboard labelled "Public Food", the fridges in the kitchen, or in the freezer. The Common Room Committee reserves the right to throw away anything left in these areas at any time.
7. Any food not stored in the cupboards, fridge, or freezer when the Common Room is closed will become public food and will be placed in the areas intended for public food.
8. The Common Room Committee reserves the right to throw away all food stored in the Common Room at the end of the 4th quartile of the academic year.
9. No permanent changes may be made to the furniture of the Common Room without approval of the Common Room Committee.
10. No party can store items in the Common Room for a period longer than 7 days without permission from the Common Room Committee. The Common Room Committee reserves the right to remove such items from the Common Room.
 - a. The Back Room and the designated board storage areas, including the fridge can only be used by official parties of AEGEE-Eindhoven and Cosmos, and are excluded from the specified time limit.
11. Property of the Common Room Committee is not allowed to be removed from the Common Room unless permission is given by the Common Room Committee.
12. The Common Room Committee reserves the right to open all lockers inside the Common Room.
13. The Common Room Committee will open and clean all the lockers at the end of the 4th quartile.
14. Items removed from the lockers by the Common Room Committee will be put in lost and found.
15. The rules for use of the lockers are made publicly available by the Common Room Committee.
